

TOM OLIVER ACHIEVEMENTS

- Award-Winning Global Social Entrepreneur
- Author of the McGraw Hill global leadership bible “Nothing Is Impossible”
- Founded the Global Leadership Circle at the Manchester Business School while contributing to its being ranked as one of the top International Business Programs
- Founder and President of the World Peace Festival and World Peace Foundation, termed “The most influential peace gathering in history” by Nobel Peace Prize Laureate Desmond Tutu
- Legendary singer, songwriter, and music producer who has headlined many of the biggest music festivals in the World
- “One of the most creative people on the planet” according to the masterminds behind Barack Obama’s multi award-winning “Yes we can campaign”
- A gateway to millions of next generation trendsetters and early adopters
- An expert on understanding the Millennial Generation and the hearts and minds of the consumers below 30
- Member, The Global Philanthropists Circle (“Most Elite Club in the World” – Bloomberg Business Week), Founded By David Rockefeller
- Awarded the title of “Best innovations in individual philanthropy and social investments around the world” (Synergos Institute, NYC)
- Awarded Lifelong seat as a creative member in the Club of Budapest (together with 18 Nobel Laureates and heads of state)
- Awarded Lifelong seat as a distinguished member in the Committee of the 100 for Tibet (invited to take the place of Vaclav Havel to become a member for life)
- A “coach to many of the world’s most notable philanthropists, entertainers, and CEOs” (McGraw Hill Professional)
- Founder and CEO of the “Nothing Is Impossible Leadership Institute,” NYC
- “One of the world’s best experts in leadership” (Wharton School of Business)

- A world-renowned authority on disruptive innovation and holistic thought leader at the best business schools in the world
- Founder and CEO of Resources For Peace, using business as a catalyst for global social change
- Co-Author of the Encyclopedia of Global Environmental Politics and Governance (Edward Elgar)